taken into consideration the factors set forth in such Rule for the determination of reasonable attorneys' fees.

6. In arriving at my opinion of the reasonableness of the attorneys' fees charged in this action, I have considered the following criteria:

a. The time and labor required, the novelty, complexity and difficulty of the questions involved, and the skill requisite to perform the legal service properly.

b. The likelihood that the acceptance of the particular employment will preclude other employment by the lawyer.

c. The fee, or rate of fee, customarily charged in this locality for legal services of a comparable or a similar nature.

d. The significance of, or amount involved in, the subject matter of the representation, the responsibility involved in the representation, and the results obtained.

7. Based upon the foregoing, it is my opinion that the fees totaling $884,449.00 and costs in the amount of $11,588.99 sought through Berger Singerman LLP's Third Interim Motion for Compensation for Professional Services and Reimbursement of Expenses For the Period From May 12, 2023 Through September 30, 2024 (the "Fee Motion") are fair and reasonable considering each and every factor contemplated by Florida Patient's Compensation Fund v. Rowe, 472 So. 2d 1145 (Fla. 1985) and the principles of Lewis v. Gramil Corp., 94 So. 2d 174, 177 (Fla. 1957). The 1,526.70 hours worked by Berger Singerman LLP are fair and reasonable. The hourly rates in the Fee Motion are reasonable. I base that opinion on, among other things, the significant skill and knowledge necessary to successfully administer this monitorship estate and a review of the records. I also take note that Berger Singerman has voluntarily reduced its fee request by 11.64%, or $116,517.00, further supporting the reasonableness of the Fee Motion. The services rendered by Berger Singerman LLP have substantially benefited the Receiver and the receivership estate.

8. I have no interest in the outcome of this litigation and I am not associated with or employed by any party to this action or by the attorneys involved in this matter.

FURTHER AFFIANT SAYETH NAUGHT.
